Call for Article Submissions

Submission deadline: April 17, 2021

WAESOL Educator invites you to submit an article in one of the following areas:

- From the Field - Teaching Reflections and Teaching Tips: an article reflecting on your teaching experiences and/or sharing tips on teaching (approximately 1100 words, excluding references)

- Scholar-practitioner Articles: a research article based on a current problem of practice or current teaching context (approximately 1500 words, excluding references)

- ELT Resources Review: a summary of an ELT resource describing its purpose, how you have used it, and why you believe this resource may be useful to other professionals (300-700 words)

- Academic Corner - Book and Article Reviews: a summary and a short reflection about any books or interesting articles you have found to be valuable (approximately 500 words)

- Conference Reviews and Professional Development: an article describing your experience at a conference or professional development event (approximately 500-1000 words)

- School, Learner, or Teacher Profiles: an interview or story that highlights the work of a school, learner, or scholar -- include photos (500-1000 words)

Other? If you have questions or other ideas for articles, please contact the editor at editor@waesol.org.

Go to waesol.org to read past issues of WAESOL Educator and to learn more about submission requirements.